

Hoogies Official Men's World Cup Sweepstakes for Human Adults & Children 2026

Competition Charter

The Draw

There are 42 registrants and 48 teams. Each registrant will be assigned two teams. Some teams will be assigned to two separate registrants. The draw will be processed as follows:

1. The 48 teams shall be divided into two pots according to FIFA ranking as per the 1/4/2026 update with the Golden Pot including the highest ranked 24 teams and the Sh*t Pot including the lowest ranked 24 teams
2. Teams ranked 1st to 18th will be added to the Golden Pot twice and teams ranked 25th to 42nd will be added to the Sh*t Pot twice, so that both pots have 42 teams (one for each registrant)
3. Registrants will be assigned one team from each pot via random draw
4. No two registrants shall be assigned the same team from both pots. Should this occur, the second registrant's Sh*t Pot team will be redrawn.

The Fine Print

Shared Team awards

There are 18 teams in each pot that will each be registered to two different registrants. These are referred to as Shared Teams. The following rules dictate which registrant respective prizes will be awarded to in the event that a Shared Team wins.

- World Cup Winner & Losing Finalist Awards:
 - o These will be awarded based on the following score tipping system:
 - Before the start of the final, each participating registrant with a Shared Team will be asked to predict the score at the end of 90 minutes
 - Prizes for Shared Teams' awards will be exclusively awarded to the winning registrant who has correctly predicted the final score. If neither winning registrant has correctly predicted the final score then the prize will be shared between both registrants.
- All other awards:
 - o These will be awarded based on the performance statistics of each registrant's second team at the end of the day in which the prize is conferred, based on the following order of assessment:
 - Most positive goal difference
 - Highest number of goals scored
 - Lowest per capita greenhouse emissions as per <https://ourworldindata.org/grapher/per-capita-ghg-emissions>

The Going Home Award

This award is for eliminating England. If England happens to be eliminated at the group stage the award will be shared equally among all teams that beat England in the group stage. In the unfortunate event that England win the World Cup the Going Home Award will be added to the World Cup winner prize.

The Nobel Peace Prize

This award is for eliminating USA. If USA happens to be eliminated at the group stage the award will be shared equally among all teams that beat USA in the group stage. In the unlikely event that USA win the World Cup the Nobel Peace Prize will be donated to the United Nations Human Rights Office of the High Commissioner.

The Punchin' (above their weight) Award

This award will be awarded to the team that achieves the biggest upset victory. The scale of each "upset" will be determined by the differential in FIFA rankings as at date 1/4/2026. In the event there are two or more upsets of the same scale, the ultimate winner will be determined based on the following, in order of assessment:

- Highest goal difference in the upset victory
- Highest number of goals scored by the winning team in the upset victory
- The greatest negative differential in average height between the winning team and their opponent in the upset victory

The Biggest Loser Award

This award is awarded to the team that suffers the heaviest defeat in a single match. The “heaviest defeat” will be determined based on the following order of assessment:

- Greatest negative goal difference in the defeat match
- Fewest goals scored in the defeat match
- Fewest completed passes in the defeat match

The “Doh” Award

This award is awarded to the team that concedes the first own goal of the tournament.

The Soccer Sucks Award

This award is awarded to the two teams that play out the first nil-nil draw of the tournament. A knockout game that finishes nil-nil at the end of regulation time will qualify for this award if the award has not already been awarded. The prize money will be divided equally between the two teams.

Teams that do not participate due to unforeseen or only partially foreseen circumstances

In the event that a qualified team does not participate in the tournament because the safety of their players in one of the host nations has been cast in doubt by the respective host nation’s president, then the registrant holding that team will be given two options:

- a) The registrant may forfeit the place of their boycotting team, maintain participation in the sweep with their second team, and receive $5 for every goal scored against the offending host nation throughout the tournament (excluding penalty shootouts)

OR

- b) The registrant may forfeit the place of their boycotting team, maintain participation in the sweep with their second team, receive a full refund of their registration fee and receive a free cheeseburger delivered by Australia Post
